Cordial Invitation

Following six successful festivals since 1992, INTERKULTUR invites choirs and lovers of romantic choir music to the town of the composer Robert Schumann. The 7th International Robert Schumann Choir Competition & Festival will take place at the magnificent Art Nouveau Hall in the “Neue Welt” from October 15-19, 2014.

The event's main objective is expressed by Schumann's famous maxim from his “Musical Rules of Life and Household”: “Honour the old, but also meet the new with a warm heart.”

This event focuses on the compositional works of Robert Schumann and his contemporaries of the 19th century along with international choir music to further INTERKULTUR's motto “Singing together brings nations together.”

Along with competition, the event offers components to bring people and cultures together. Evaluation performances allow choirs to receive pedagogical and artistic advice from internationally renowned experts. Friendship Concerts in the cultural area of Vogtland-Zwickau provide outstanding possibilities for choirs to hear songs from all over the world.

The 7th International Robert Schumann Choir Competition & Festival is part of the INTERKULTUR event series. Since 1988 around 300.000 participants from 100 countries have participated in these events under the motto “participation is the highest honour”.

The “City of Robert Schumann”, Zwickau is a cultural and economic centre of West-Saxony. The city is delighted to again host the high-ranking international choir competition. Zwickau is a developing metropolis at the foot of the “Erzgebirge” mountains and is an ideal location for an international choir competition for its friendly atmosphere and the friendly service at hotels and restaurants.

Welcome to the 7th International Robert Schumann Choir Competition & Festival!
