Trout Farm & Art Glass Studio

Adler, the largest trout breeding plant in Russia and CIS, is situated on the Mzymta river bank thirty-minute drive from the Central district of Sochi. This is the only place in Russia where juvenile trout is bred. This farm can boast of a unique breed herd - all rainbow trout species known. During the excursion, you will be able to see the way these valuable fish species are bred, take part in trout feeding and stroll along ponds stocked with trout.

During the second part of the excursion program, you will visit the "Art glass studio" and learn the process of making handmade glass-ware in a unique Czech glass-blowing furnace (equivalents of Czech and Italian blowing shops). In the studio, you will have a unique chance to buy glass souvenirs dedicated to Sochi.

Next, our guests will have a lunch, where they will be able to help themselves to the freshest possible trout fished out from the Trout Farm only an hour ago.

Akhun Mountain & Stalin's Dacha

TOUR

Sochi is a resort city of global importance! Still, it has so much more to offer than beaches and the sea. If you want to learn about the history of Sochi, rest and entertainment routines of national leaders, you cannot miss our review excursion with a visit to Akhun mountain and J.V. Stalin's Dacha (summer residence).

Excursion to the Joseph Stalin's Dacha is a unique opportunity to see the world that surrounded the former leader of the Soviet empire with your own eyes. In 1930s and 1940s, chiefs of states and political leaders of various parties used to take their rest there. The former dacha is situated in the territory of Zelenaya Roscha (Green Grove) Health Resort. The scenery has remained the same from Stalin's times.

Visit to Akhun mountain offers you a unique chance to get to the upper observation point and enjoy an unbelievable view of snow-white peaks of the main Caucasian range, Sochi surroundings, the lush resort itself and, of course, a breath-taking view of the Black Sea.

Holy Trinity and St. George's Eparchial Convent

The Holy Trinity and St. George's Eparchial Convent belongs to modern shrines. This sequestered spot is situated in Lesnoye mountain settlement of Adler district of Sochi on the way to Krasnaya Polyana.

The convent location was chosen in 1999 by three nuns that represented Russia, Ukraine and Belarus. The convent was built following traditions of old Russian monasteries. The convent built on private contributions united several Christian pilgrim shrines. The convent's territory houses a church in honor of the Vladimir icon of Mother of God, temple of priestly martyr Warus and the "Seven Arrows" Icon of the Mother of God, and a chapel named "Assuage my sorrows".

Nuns of the convent will tell you about sacrament of the church and history of Orthodoxy. This is where you will also be able to light your candle of hope for the better, taste conventual kvass and bread, bathe in a consecrated bath, take some holy water, and buy icons, crosses, spiritual literature and conventual souvenirs.

Tea Terem (Chamber)

Making our way to the mountainous part of Uch-Dere settlement located between Loo and Dagomys settlements, we'll be able to take a close look at the history and the specifics of tea cultivation, harvesting and processing in the neighbourhood of Sochi, see how it grows and even pluck a few leaves as a keepsake, and then in the cosy atmosphere of the traditional Russian tea-drinking ceremony, taste aromatic, invigorating, astringent drink.

Here in the 1970s of the previous century, not far from tea plantations, the so-called traditional Tea Houses had been built specifically for accepting foreign guests and putting them up to the ways of the Russian tea traditions. They are situated on a high mountain, offering stunning views of the surrounding mountains.

In Tea Houses each guest becomes part of Russian tea-drinking ceremony with puffing samovar, pies, variety of jams, honey, accompanied by Russian folk songs, dances and roundelays.

There is an original Russian Terem, decorated with wood carvings, Bogorodskoye and Dymkovo toys, Vologda and Lipetsk lace, Palekh lacquer miniatures and Khokhloma painted utensils.

Beautiful breathtaking places, museum, tea with honey and pies, as well as songs and dances performed by the folk music ensemble - these are what await you there.
