An event of the MUSICA MUNDI Series

1st International Anton-Bruckner Choir Competition and Festival

Join us in looking forward to a new MUSICA MUNDI® choir festival in the Upper Austrian city of Linz. From 6th – 10th June 2007, choirs of various genres, age groups and styles will meet here to sing together. Whether you just want to enjoy the atmosphere of a choir festival without taking part in the competition or you want to compete with other amateur choirs in various categories – you are all most welcome to join us!

Competitions will be held at various difficulty levels for mixed choirs, men's choirs, women's choirs, children's and youth choirs, chamber choirs and vocal ensembles as well as choirs specialising in sacred music. The highlight of the event is the competition for the Anton Bruckner Choir Prize.

The attractions on opening day include a performance of Mass in E Minor by Anton Bruckner. Interested choirs may take part in this performance. In addition, attractive gala concerts will be held on the other festival days at landmark venues from Upper Austria's cultural scene: the Cathedral of Linz, the Ursulinenkirche, the Brucknerhaus concert hall and the historic centre of Linz. Special highlights include the encounter concerts in the wonderful baroque monastery of St. Florian, not far from Linz, in which Anton Bruckner worked as an organist.

MUSICA MUNDI® is synonymous with first-class international choir competitions and festivals and is one of the biggest and most successful cultural event series worldwide.

LINZ – THE SOUND OF CULTURE

Visit Linz and you embark on a journey to a city with a history going back more than a thousand years. Originally a Roman fort, the city became the residence of the German Kaisers in the Middle Ages. Today, it is the cultural capital of Upper Austria. And its beautiful surroundings are also well worth a day trip or two.

Linz is looking forward to giving you a hearty welcome!
