

7th Venezia in Musica 2009
3rd International Choir Competition

Italy • April 29 – May 3, 2009

An event of the MUSICA MUNDI series

7th Venezia in Musica 2009 / 3rd International Choir Competition

We cordially invite you to join us in the Lagoon City, to sing with other choirs in encounter concerts in front of a unique backdrop. These concerts, which form part of the festival programme, will be held both on the city's many vibrant squares and beautiful churches and are sure to attract enthusiastic audiences.

If you would also like to take part in competition, you have a choice of various difficulty levels and categories. There are categories for all kinds of choirs, with special emphasis on folklore and sacred music. The competitions will be held in the congress centre and the church of S. Cuore di Gesù in Lido di Jesolo, the popular holiday resort on the doorstep of Venice.

The highlight will be the major choir competition on the Saturday. Experience the diversity of voices and sounds in a unique atmosphere. Venice is looking forward to welcoming you!

ALL ROADS LEAD TO ROME

Rome, built on seven hills, has been a centre of power since ancient times. The city boasts architectural landmarks from down through the ages, including the Forum Romanum, St. Peter's Basilica and the Pantheon, to name but three. Its countless churches and museums also have works by the world's most famous painters and sculptors. The Choral tradition of this city is also outstanding, from gregorian chant to the modern masters like Palestrina, di Lasso, da Victoria and Carissimi. Come and enjoy this unique city, one of the world's most popular travel destinations.
