

January 2010

Dear friends of music and culture,

In this issue you get the latest news on the world of INTERKULTUR:

- Greetings for the New Year
- Shaoxing: We'll be there
- The WCG interactive

with musical regards,

yours

Günter Titsch | President INTERKULTUR

Greetings for the New Year

We wish you, your family and your friends a happy and successful New Year 2010.

During the past year INTERKULTUR changed its corporate design which becomes most evident in the newly-arranged homepage www.interkultur.com. But the corporate philosophy of course still remains the same: To unite people of all countries, cultures and ideologies in a peaceful choir competition and thus to celebrate colourful festivals full of joy and emotions.

We hope that many of you will participate in the upcoming events and thus contribute in building new „bridges of encounters“.

Shaoxing: We'll be there

The largest and certainly most beautiful festival of the international choir community will be celebrated next July in Shaoxing, China.

Due to the huge number of enquiries and numerous requests we have extended the application deadline. Participation is still possible. A huge number of choirs and music ensembles from all over the world has already applied. Each of the following choirs represents a country and all continents are being represented.

- Stellenbosch University Choir from Stellenbosch (South Africa)
- Orereta Abesbatza from Errenteria (Spain)
- The University of Newcastle Chamber Choir from Newcastle (Australia)
- Otdyhei from Nowosibirsk (Russia)
- McQueen Core Jazz from Reno (USA)
- Miriam College High School Glee Club from Quezon City (Philippines)
- Coral Comfenalco Santander from Bucamaranga (Colombia)

An even larger variety of participants can be found at www.worldchoirgames.com. We are looking forward to meeting all of you in Shaoxing and to celebrate together a peaceful festival of nations.

The WCG Interactive

The fan community also increases online constantly.

The World Choir Games group at the internet portal Facebook enjoys a constantly increasing popularity and meanwhile has more than 5000 members. Choir music lovers from all over the world can get in contact with each other directly and share their experiences and anticipation.

For the mutual exchange of information the INTERKULTUR forum, where FAQs are being answered professionally, is also apt. Furthermore INTERKULTUR is going to expand its presence in social networks on the internet within the next months in order to ensure also here best services and assistance regarding the events.

We are looking forward to your visit.

Further information at:

www.interkultur.com

Questions and ideas:

email: mail@interkultur.com or phone: +49-6403-956525

If you would like to cancel the receipt of this newsletter please click here.

Publisher: INTERKULTUR, Am Weingarten 3, 35415 Pohlheim, Germany

Responsible according to § 6 MStV: Günter Titsch

Interkultur is a non profit organisation registered at AG Gießen (Germany)

Reg. No. 1806 - Förderverein Interkultur e.V. President: Günter Titsch