Cordial Invitation

Grado, the historic sunny island in the Adriatic Sea, invites you from October 1-5, 2014 to the

7th International Choir Festival "ISOLA DEL SOLE"

All choirs, vocal and folk groups are welcome to join this festival which is part of the international event series of INTERKULTUR.

INTERKULTUR is happy to be able to reintroduce the successful event, "Isola del Sole", after a break of several years.

The picturesque Adriatic town of Grado, located on the "Island of the Sun", the famous centuries-old Roman city of Aquileia and the exceptional historical importance of the region on the eastern edge of the lagoon of Venice, promise ideal conditions for an atmospheric choral festival in one of the most beautiful regions, south of the Alps.

In addition to the traditional components, such as the choir competition and concerts, this event contains some significant innovations which have been fixed elements of INTERKULTUR event series for several years. These elements provide better support for such a gathering of international choirs in a learning environment as well as bring the artistic advice and expertise to the center of the event. Thus, many choirs' wish to receive comprehensive educational and artistic guidance by outstanding international choral experts is fulfilled and the attractiveness of the event is increased. With its picturesque location in a culturally rich region, international choirs from many parts of the world, competitions, concerts in exotic places, meetings with international experts - the 7th International Choir Festival ISOLA DEL SOLE promises to be a great festival.

You are very welcome!
