Cordial Invitation

Dear friends of choral music!

“Canta al mar” - “Sing at the sea” is one of the most flexible Festivals of INTERKULTUR. It offers each choir the possibility to perform in a number of ways. Whether mutual open air concerts in Calella’s atmospheric town centre and church or concerts and competitions in Calella and Barcelona’s top venues and churches: Each choir can choose the specific festival elements it desires and which it expects from an INTERKULTUR event.

The festival, which will already take place for the 5th time in 2016, is supposed to be a meeting of choirs from all over the world. The joint singing in squares and in the streets of the city as well as experiencing the Catalan “joie de vivre” will compose the core of the festival. At the same time INTERKULTUR will also present a choir competition with different levels of difficulty and categories.

Calella is an attractive seaside resort at the Spanish Costa del Maresme which boasts Spain’s longest sandy beach. A culinary and emotional highlight of the festival will be ones again the tasting of Spain’s national dish, enormous paella, which the hosts will prepare for all participants. Full-time excursions to Barcelona and other touristic programs can be combined with concerts and competition performances to make this eventful festival perfect.

We cordially invite you to come to Calella and Barcelona in October 2016 and to join our festival. A unique and unforgettable experience with musical, touristic and gastronomic highlights is awaiting you!
