PHILIPPINE INTERNATIONAL CHOIR COMPETITION

Singing, celebrating and enjoying life – the new international choir festival & competition in Bohol, Philippines combines all pleasures of the „Sing'n'Joy“ event series in a magnificent destination in Southeast Asia.

Bohol is famous for its Chocolate Hills and the tiny Tarsiers, which exist in this province only. It's also especially known for historic churches from the Spanish colonization. Some of them bear the honorary title „national cultural treasure“. In 2013 many of these churches were destroyed in a massive earthquake in the region.
