AN  INTERKULTUR EVENT

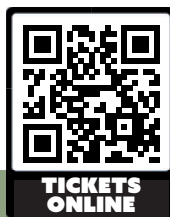

SING WITH ERIC WHITACRE

For the next edition of our sing-along concert in Barcelona INTERKULTUR has engaged a famous star of the international choral scene: Eric Whitacre will work with the participating singers on some of his most popular compositions and conduct an incredible Closing Concert on the last day.

As always in Barcelona, the wonderful choir Orfeo Catalá will join the concert in the Palau de la Música Catalana for an unforgettable musical experience.

The 2023 Sing Along Concert is open to individual singers, as always, but also choirs that have Whitacre's pieces in their repertoire, have the chance to take this unique chance to deepen their knowledge of these pieces together with the composer himself.

This is a singing opportunity not to be missed! Invite your friends, join us in Barcelona and start singing together – in the magnificent Palau de la Música Catalana under the baton of choral music's rock star Eric Whitacre!
