SING'N'JOY BOHOL

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

GREETING

Welcome, dear guests and participants,

In October 2024 we are excited to start a new competition in South-East Asia. In the past years the city of Tagbilaran, Bohol, has become famous for its spectacular, colorful parades with magnificent costumes and numerous festivals, including the famous Saulog Tagbilaran. They regularly delight visitors from near and far and thus, we could not find a better place to start a new INTERKULTUR event.

While the competitions will take place in the Bohol Cultural Center, the Friendship Concerts offer the unique opportunity to sing in historic Spanish colonial churches. Moreover, the Holy Name University invites numerous choirs to celebrate a colorful folklore festival on its campus.

To celebrate this first edition the Governor of Bohol invites all of you to the Carlos P. Garcia Park at the end of the event, where in front of the new Capitol, the provincial Government building, singing, eating, and drinking will be celebrated deep into the night.

Come join us in Bohol!

SING'N'JOY FESTIVAL CHOIR

A highlight of the event will be the Sing'n'Joy Festival Choir.

All choirs are cordially invited to register for this project and to rehearse and perform international choral music under the baton of the world-class conductors including Johan Rooze (Netherlands) and Jonathan Velasco (Philippines).

The selected songs will be provided to you after the registration.

FRIENDSHIP CONCERTS

The Friendship Concerts are an important element of this festival. Many of the many historic churches of the Spanish colonial period in Bohol were destroyed by a severe earthquake in 2013. Stone by stone, the churches are being painstakingly rebuilt, a wonderful opportunity to fill a few of the renovated churches with choral music from around the world. Further friendship concerts are planned in the nearby town of Loboc and on the campus of the Holy Name University.

Choirs may register to perform with other international choirs and must prepare 15 minutes of their own music preapproved by the Artistic Committee. The concert should be preferably a cappella or with own instruments.

Please be aware that several friendship concerts are planned open air. In the event that weather conditions do not allow this, some concerts may be cancelled due to the weather. The organizers will try to manage alternatives but choirs do not have any legal claim to this.

Choirs can also take part in Friendship Concerts ONLY (Non-competitive Festival Participation).

2.2 COMPETITION RULES

- GENERAL RULES
- a) All non-professional choirs are welcome to compete in this event. With the exception of the conductors, its members must all be amateurs, e.g. they are not allowed to earn their livelihood by professional singing.
 - b) In categories with age limits, a maximum of 20% of the members may exceed/fall below the age limit by 5 years. The organizers reserve the right to check the ages of the singers.
 - c) The order of performances within a category is scheduled at random.
 - d) INDIVIDUAL CONCERTS AND PERFORMANCES: During their stay the participating choirs are not allowed to give further concerts or performances without the organizer's approval in advance.
- MULTIPLE PARTICIPATION
- a) Individual choir members may participate in smaller ensembles formed out of their primary choir but may NOT sing in more than one primary choir.
 - b) All choirs may participate in only one of the categories A, SE, or G.
 - c) In addition, mixed choirs can participate with their male or female voices in the same category. Choirs may additionally choose to participate in category F and R independent of their participation in A, SE or G. Within the category all works have to be performed with the same line-up (e.g. it is not permitted to perform 2 pieces with mixed voices and 2 pieces with equal voices).
 - d) Conductors are permitted to conduct only one choir per category, however conducting in different categories is allowed. Exceptions: categories A2 and SE. A choir may also perform with several conductors.
- MUSIC
- a) The Artistic Committee decides on the admission of the program to the competition. The approval of the Artistic Committee is usually not given when it comes to opera choirs or when the character of the composition conflicts with a choral interpretation (such as "Nabucco - Prisoners' Choir" by Giuseppe Verdi edited for children's voices, "Träumerei" by Robert Schumann edited for choir). In addition, none of the programs may include topics such as war or glorification of violence and may not be against other nations and nationalities.
 - b) It is NOT permitted to sing the same pieces in different categories.
 - c) The use of ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONS (category A) means that a piece must be performed in accordance with the composer's original score. Compositions prior-to and through the Baroque era may be performed in variations of scoring that correspond with the original musical material. The arrangement of a composition is permitted if it has led to a new composition. The Artistic Committee reserves the right to reject compositions
 - d) In category A only ORIGINAL ACCOMPANIMENTS are permitted, which means that any reductions in orchestration or transcriptions of other instruments that were not planned by the composer and do not have an accepted performance tradition are excluded from the competition.

2. COMPETITIVE PARTICIPATION

- e) In some categories, a piece by a composer and/or not composer from the country, language area or the cultural environment is requested. Please note that this must be an original composition and not an arrangement.
- f) ACCOMPANIMENT means that at least one pitched instrument is used. In categories requiring a cappella selections, a maximum of three instruments without definite pitch may be used (percussion instruments).
- g) ARRANGEMENTS: If you intend to change a song in any way and/or rearrange it for your choir, you will need permission from the song's copyright owner. Bear in mind that if you do not obtain permission you risk exposing yourself to legal action.
- h) AMPLIFICATION: Any kind of amplification of voices and instruments is not permitted. In rooms with poor acoustics, the organizer can use miking and amplification, which supports but does not dominate the performance of the choir. This, however, will not result in solo microphonation of the choir or of instruments.
- i) CHANGES OF KEY: If the choir wishes to change the key, the jury must be informed in writing if a choir wishes to change the key from what is written in the printed score prior to the competition.
- j) After APPROVAL OF PROPOSED PROGRAM by the artistic directors, it will be returned for final review and confirmation by the respective choir. The choir must respond within 14 days of delivery with any changes to the program. If there is no response within 14 days, the program will be considered final; therefore neither titles nor performance order may be changed. Changes made without informing the organizer will result in a disqualification. Choirs are responsible for possible performing rights of their program.
- k) ACTUAL SINGING TIME: Actual singing time is the duration of the performance time only. It excludes entrance, exit, and applause.

SHEET MUSIC

- a) 5 scores of every piece must be submitted with the registration forms.
- b) Scores submitted must conform to internationally recognized sheet music standards (five lines of notes).
- c) Scores that do not bear the titles, names of composers etc. printed in the Roman alphabet must bear a transcription into the Roman alphabet (clear handwritten notes suffice).
- d) One score remains with the organizer after the competition. Remaining scores may be collected from the organizer after the awards ceremony. Uncollected scores will not be sent by mail.
- e) No scores have to be submitted for gala or friendship concerts.
- f) Please note that published choral compositions may only be sung using the original scores or authorized copies. Copying sheet music either by photocopier, scanner or by hand without the permission of the copyright owner is a copyright law violation and can be fined. All scores must be sent by mail as hardcopy. Scores sent as files (PDF or similar) will not be accepted.
- g) If your scores are published as score book, please submit only one book but preferably authorized copies.
