PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

GREETING

Dear singers,

We are happy to invite you to the 11th International Choir Festival in Grado, known as the „Isola del Sole“ (Island of the Sun). After four years, we are excited to once again gather choirs from around the world in this beautiful destination, renowned for its stunning beaches and rich history.

Travel with us to Grado, which is famous for its picturesque old town, where you can wander through narrow streets lined with colorful buildings, quaint shops, and delightful cafés.

One of the highlights of Grado is the Basilica di Sant'Eufemia, a stunning example of early Christian architecture. This historic basilica features beautiful mosaics and a bell tower that offers breathtaking views of the surrounding area. We are delighted to be able to host competitions and concerts in this wonderful church.

Join us in celebrating the joy of music in the enchanting setting of Grado, sharing your music with other choir and connecting with fellow singers from diverse backgrounds.

We look forward to welcoming you to this unforgettable event!

2.2 COMPETITION RULES

- GENERAL RULES
- a) All non-professional choirs are welcome to compete in this event. With the exception of the conductors, its members must all be amateurs, e.g. they are not allowed to earn their livelihood by professional singing. Furthermore, if conductors are professional singers, they cannot take part as a singer in their choirs during the competition.
The organisers reserve the right to check the profession of the singers at any time.
 - b) In categories with age limits, a maximum of 20% of the members may exceed/fall below the age limit by 5 years.
The organizers reserve the right to check the ages of the singers.
 - c) The order of performances within a category is scheduled at random.
 - d) INDIVIDUAL CONCERTS AND PERFORMANCES: During their stay the participating choirs are not allowed to give further concerts or performances without the organizer's approval in advance.
- MULTIPLE PARTICIPATION
- a) For organizational reasons, we recommend each choir to register for a maximum of 2 competition categories. Participation in more categories cannot be guaranteed.
 - b) Individual choir members may participate in smaller ensembles formed out of their primary choir but may NOT sing in more than one primary choir.
 - c) All choirs may participate in only one of A, C, G.
 - d) In addition, mixed choirs can participate with their male or female voices in the same category (i.e. category A1+A2). Choirs may additionally choose to participate in category S and F independent of their participation in A, C or G. Within the category all pieces have to be performed with the same line-up (e.g. it is not permitted to perform 2 pieces with equal voices and 2 pieces with mixed voices).
 - e) Conductors are permitted to conduct only one choir per category, however conducting in different categories is allowed. Exceptions are categories A2, C2 and G2 (in these categories conductors may conduct up to 2 choirs with different formations). A choir may also perform with several conductors.
 - f) If a choir performs in several categories, the line-up must remain the same. This means, for example, that the number of singers in the different categories must be identical or may only differ minimally relative to the overall choir size. Any deviations are subject to confirmation by the Artistic Committee.
- MUSIC
- a) The Artistic Committee decides on the admission of the program to the competition. The approval of the Artistic Committee is usually not given when it comes to opera choirs or when the character of the composition conflicts with a choral interpretation (such as "Nabucco - Prisoners' Choir" by Giuseppe Verdi edited for children's voices, "Träumerei" by Robert Schumann edited for choir). In addition, none of the programs may include topics such as war or glorification of violence and may not be against other nations and nationalities.
 - b) It is NOT permitted to sing the same pieces in different categories.

2. COMPETITIVE PARTICIPATION

- c) Some categories require a composition which does not originate in the COUNTRY, LANGUAGE AREA OR CULTURAL ENVIRONMENT of the participating choir. Examples of compliance:
- Choirs from English-speaking countries should choose compositions written in a different language.
 - A Choir from a Baltic Country (Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia) should not sing a composition from another Baltic country even if the two countries naturally have different cultures and languages.
 - A choir from a Slavic country should not select a work from another Slavic nation, even if the two countries naturally have different cultures and languages.
 - Choirs from Germany and from the German-speaking region (including South Tyrol) are not permitted to perform pieces in German or works by composers from the German-speaking linguistic and cultural area.
 - A choir from Latin and South America should select a piece that does not come from the same region.
- d) The use of ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONS (categories A and C) means that a piece must be performed in accordance with the composer's original score. Compositions prior-to and through the Baroque era may be performed in variations of scoring that correspond with the original musical material. Arrangements are not regarded as original compositions. Works that cannot be clearly attributed to one composer will not be accepted as original compositions. The Artistic Committee reserves the right to reject compositions.
- e) In categories A and C only ORIGINAL ACCOMPANIMENTS are permitted, which means that any reductions in orchestration or transcriptions of other instruments that were not planned by the composer and do not have an accepted performance tradition are excluded from the competition.
- f) ARRANGEMENTS: If you intend to change a song in any way and/or rearrange it for your choir, you will need permission from the song's copyright owner. Bear in mind that if you do not obtain permission you risk exposing yourself to legal action.
- g) ACCOMPANIMENT means that at least one pitched instrument is used. In categories requiring a cappella selections, a maximum of three instruments without definite pitch may be used (percussion instruments).
- h) AMPLIFICATION: Any kind of amplification of voices and instruments is not permitted.
- i) CHANGES OF KEY: If the choir wishes to change the key, the jury must be informed in writing if a choir wishes to change the key from what is written in the printed score prior to the competition.
- j) After APPROVAL OF PROPOSED PROGRAM by the Artistic Committee, it will be returned for final review and confirmation by the respective choir. The choir must respond within 14 days of delivery with any changes to the program. If there is no response within 14 days, the program will be considered final; therefore neither titles nor performance order may be changed. Changes made without informing the organizer will result in a disqualification. Choirs are responsible for possible performing rights of their program.
- k) ACTUAL SINGING TIME: Actual singing time is the duration of the performance time only. It excludes entrance, exit, and applause.

2. COMPETITIVE PARTICIPATION

- SHEET MUSIC
- a) 3 scores of every piece must be submitted with the registration forms.
 - b) Scores submitted must conform to internationally recognized sheet music standards (five lines of notes).
 - c) Scores that do not bear the titles, names of composers etc. printed in the Roman alphabet must bear a transcription into the Roman alphabet (clear handwritten notes suffice).
 - d) One score remains with the organizer after the competition. Remaining scores may be collected from the organizer after the Awards Ceremony. Uncollected scores will not be sent by mail.
 - e) No scores have to be submitted for Friendship Concerts.
 - f) Please note that published choral compositions must only be sung using the original scores or authorized copies. Copying sheet music either by photocopier, scanner or by hand without the permission of the copyright owner is a copyright law violation and can be fined. All scores must be sent by mail as hardcopy. Scores sent as files (PDF or similar) will not be accepted.
