The 2027 World Choir Games will once again transform Linz into an international hub for choral music, welcoming guests from around the world to a city that uniquely blends tradition and innovation. As a UNESCO City of Media Arts, Linz captivates visitors with its vibrant cultural scene, modern architecture, and inspiring atmosphere that extends far beyond the concert halls.

Make the most of your stay by discovering the best that Upper Austria has to offer. Our carefully selected day trips will take you to the picturesque Salzkammergut region, with its crystal-clear lakes and breathtaking mountain landscapes; the historic city of Steyr, with its charming old town; or the Mühlviertel, where rolling hills, traditional craftsmanship, and warm hospitality await.

Whether you are seeking nature, culture, or regional cuisine, these excursions are the perfect complement to your World Choir Games experience and will help make your stay in Upper Austria truly unforgettable.
