

Mr. Günter Titsch
President, INTERKULTUR
Hoi An, May 19th 2019

Dear Mr. Gunter Titsch,

First of all, I would like to deliver the most sincere greetings and best wishes to you.

Indeed, I was deeply touched and surprised when receiving your letter. Please accept my deepest thank for your warm wishes and your affection for Hoi An as well as for the Vietnam International Choir Competition in Hoi An.

I was very delighted that this year's event gathered choirs from many different countries around the world; this diversity of participating countries proves that our event has been becoming well-known and truly as you said, "This wonderful International Choir Competition in Hoi An became one of the favorite destinations of the choirs from all parts of the world". And we are very proud of this. On this occasion, I would also like to express my deep gratitude to you and INTERKULTUR for your great cooperation and support over the years to bring the event to the sixth season, and, I am confident that the event will go further in the future.

Dear Mr. Titsch, for over 30 years of my career, working with INTERKULTUR team in the last five events, for me, is not only a great pleasure, but also an experience in working with a professional team from a leading organization of international music events and an unforgettable memory as well.

I still remember the time when I met you in China in 2012, I hope to have an opportunity to meet again and welcome you at the 7th Vietnam International Choir Competition in Hoi An.

Once again, please allow me to express my gratitude to you. I wish you the best of health and wish INTERKULTUR more and more success in connecting the universal language of music.

Yours sincerely,

Võ Phùng.
